CRNCC Co-Chairs
June 6, 2006
Background

- CRNCC grew out of March 2005 symposium: “From Ideas to Action: Community Services in the Continuum of Care.”
- Responded to need by community service agencies, professional associations, consumer groups and policy analysts to connect to research evidence to inform and guide policy and practice.
- Seed money and support from Medicare to Home and Community Research Unit & Health Policy Management and Evaluation, University of Toronto.
- Web site launched November 2005 at Ontario Community Support Association Conference.
Funding: SSHRC and Ryerson University

- $300,000 from SSHRC with $300,000 matching funds from Ryerson University
- Consolidate and expand efforts to gather, synthesize the best available evidence about home and community care.
- Ensure a stable knowledge exchange infrastructure.
- Expand the Network locally, nationally and internationally.
