

Learning Outcomes

LO	Description
1a	1a Provide competent and confident midwifery care in accordance with the ICM Definition of a Midwife and professional standards in normal situations
1b	1b Provide competent and confident midwifery care in accordance with the ICM Definition of a Midwife and professional standards in common variations of normal and atypical situations
1c	1c Provide competent and confident midwifery care in accordance with the ICM Definition of a Midwife and professional standards in abnormal situations
2	2 Work competently and confidently as an autonomous primary care provider in all settings, including clinics, home, birth centres and hospitals
3a	3a intra-professionally Collaborate effectively as a primary care provider with clients and as a member of the health care team
3b	3b inter-professionally Collaborate effectively as a primary care provider with clients and as a member of the health care team
4a	4a Communicate re. informed choice discussion with clients
4b	4b Communicate re. documentation
4c	4c Communicate re. practice protocol writing
4d	4d Communicate re. inter-professional consultation and referral
4e	4e Communicate re. health policy discussion
4f	4f Culturally respectful communication
5a	5a anatomy and physiology - define, describe and apply knowledge of the foundational sciences to midwifery care
5b	5b reproductive physiology - define, describe and apply knowledge of the foundational sciences to midwifery care
5c	5c pharmacology - define, describe and apply knowledge of the foundational sciences to midwifery care

5d	5d life sciences - define, describe and apply knowledge of the foundational sciences to midwifery care
6	6 Define, describe and apply knowledge of the social science curriculum in working across difference and in the provision of culturally safe clinical care
7a	7a rural - Define, describe and apply knowledge of local, national and international midwifery
7b	7b Remote
7c	7c Indigenous midwifery - Define, describe and apply knowledge of local, national and international midwifery
7d	7d Local
7e	7e international
7f	7f national
8a	8a normal situations - Define, describe and apply knowledge of maternal and newborn conditions to the midwifery care
8b	8b common variations and atypical situations- Define, describe and apply knowledge of maternal and newborn conditions to the midwifery care
8c	8C abnormal situations- Define, describe and apply knowledge of maternal and newborn conditions to the midwifery care
9	9 Employ analytical skills necessary to critically appraise research evidence
10	10 Apply research evidence to provide quality midwifery care
11a	11a Demonstrate critical thinking and problem solving skills in academic work
11b	11b Demonstrate critical thinking and problem solving skills in clinical practice
12	12 Engage in lifelong learning and reflexive practice ; manages and monitors ongoing knowledge and skills in changing circumstances
13	13 Demonstrate knowledge of scopes of practice of relevant health professionals
14	14 Recognize the limits and constant evolution of evidence for health care practice
15	15 Demonstrate professional values in all care settings, including principles of social justice, health equity and inclusion, client centered care and ethics.

16

16 Exercises initiative, personal responsibility and accountability