

Learning Outcomes

LO	Description
LO1-O	Explain the professional, technical, legal, and ethical role of occupational health & safety in society
LO2-O	Identify the various occupational health & safety hazards and apply the associated theories, regulatory frameworks, current best practices and methodologies relevant to occupational health & safety
LO3-O	Demonstrate the knowledge and skills to start a career in occupational health & safety including the core competencies necessary to challenge professional certification examinations and be aware of the limitations of their knowledge and skills
LO4-O	Manage their own learning in evolving and/or emerging circumstances throughout their careers
LO5-O	Demonstrate effective interpersonal skills
LO6-O	Communicate effectively in both written and oral form
LO7-O	Work independently, critically review and evaluate qualitative and quantitative information, solve problems and propose solutions
LO8-O	Rely on an interdisciplinary perspective of occupational health & safety
LO1-P	Explain the professional, technical, legal, and ethical role of public health inspection in society
LO2-P	Identify the various public health hazards and apply the associated theories, regulatory frameworks, current best practices and methodologies relevant to public health inspection
LO3-P	Demonstrate the knowledge and skills to start a career in public health inspection including the core competencies necessary to challenge professional certification examinations and be aware of the limitations of their knowledge and skills
LO4-P	Manage their own learning in evolving and/or emerging circumstances throughout their careers
LO5-P	Demonstrate effective interpersonal skills
LO6-P	Communicate effectively in both written and oral form
LO7-P	Work independently, critically review and evaluate qualitative and quantitative information, solve problems and propose solutions

LO8-P

Rely on an interdisciplinary perspective of public health inspection