

Learning Outcomes

| LO | Description |
|---------|--|
| LO1 | Disrupt traditional approaches to fashion and propose critical alternatives for change. |
| LO2 | Research and contextualize foundational knowledge of fashion cultures, practices and systems. |
| LO3 | Practice and demonstrate principles of empathetic, ethical and responsible citizenship in fashion, including environmental justice and sustainability. |
| LO4 | Initiate creative ideas and practices through experimentation and design processes. |
| LO5 | Demonstrate an understanding of one's positionality and distinct design perspective. |
| LO6 | Refine craft, skill and technique in visual, verbal and material practices. |
| LO7 | Communicate concepts through visual, verbal and material practices. |
| LO8 | Develop networks and forge collaborations with others to promote social change. |
| LO9 | Examine the local and global contexts, impacts, challenges and opportunities for Canadian fashion. |
| LO10 | Contribute to design justice through the principles of equity, diversity, inclusion and accessibility. |
| LO11 | Demonstrate an understanding of the colonial underpinnings of fashion systems to and shift practices towards principles of decolonization. |
| LO12 | Actively engage in fashion communities and networks through experiential opportunities such as extracurricular activities, exchanges, internships and other professionally focused activities. |
| LO13 | Create a body of work that contributes to the field of fashion through research and design praxis. |
| LO14 FD | Create meaningful fashion for diverse people, communities and organizations through evolving methods, research and design. (Fashion Design) |
| LO15 FC | Communicate effectively using a variety of media for diverse audiences through research and design. (Fashion Communication) |
| LO16 DL | Envision and implement innovative leadership and management strategies for fashion businesses and organizations. (Design Leadership) |

| | |
|----------|---|
| LO17 FS | Critically analyze and contribute to scholarship in the field of fashion studies. (Fashion Studies) |
| LO18 TMP | Innovate fashion with materials, techniques and fabrications through research and design. (Textiles and Material Practices) |