The matters in dispute proceeded to a mediation and then an arbitration on January 23 & 24, 2019.

Introduction

This award arises out of an interest arbitration between Ryerson University and the Ryerson Faculty Association. Meetings were held with the parties in the fall of 2018. Detailed mediation briefs were filed in early January 2019 and the matters in dispute proceeded to a mediation on January 23, 2019. It quickly became apparent that the outstanding issues could not be consensually resolved and the parties agreed to proceed directly to arbitration on January 24, 2019. In deciding the outstanding issues, all of the applicable criteria have been carefully considered, in particular, replication: replication of free collective bargaining having regard to appropriate comparators.

Pregnancy and Parental

There have been legislative changes to the pregnancy and parental provisions, which may require changes to the collective agreement. I am remitting this issue to the parties, with the understanding that any changes made will not result in any loss in any benefit to any member. I remain seized

Voluntary Retirement Incentive

The University Administration is proposing a one-time Voluntary Retirement Incentive Program (the "Program") to be offered to eligible RFA members. In order to be eligible the member must:

- Have reached Normal Retirement Date (NRD) under the Ryerson Pension Plan (ie at least 65 years of age) as of July 1, 2019
- Be a tenure-stream faculty or Career Librarian or Counselor (past their probationary period) and have a minimum of 10 years of pensionable service at Ryerson
- Be actively at work or on a leave with an expectation of a return to active work

The proposed terms and conditions of the Program are as follows:

1. Notification of election to take the Program must be submitted to the University by March 31, 2019.
2. Once the notification is received by the University the decision to retire is irrevocable.
3. Members participating in the Program must retire by August 31, 2019.
4. Members participating in the Program will receive one year of salary paid as a lump sum retiring allowance at the time of retirement. Members may elect to have the payment made in two sums over two calendar years.
5. Eligible members who are on sabbatical during the 2018-19 academic year are also eligible to participate in the Program.
6. Faculty members who are on an approved reduced workload arrangement under Articles 10.8.B and 10.15B with a fixed retirement date and a signed Memorandum of Agreement and members who have already confirmed a retirement date are not eligible for the Voluntary Retirement Incentive Program.
7. Limited Term Faculty and Limited Contract (Temporary) Instructors hired to replace faculty members participating in the Program during the academic year following their retirement shall not be included in the complement calculation found in Article 4.6C. Complement anomalies, on either side of the equation (4.3 and/or 4.6) occurring until September 2020 as a result of departures under this early retirement incentive will not result in a breach of those articles.

Teaching Stream

It is very clear to me that the parties have profound differences over the risks and benefits of introducing a teaching stream at Ryerson University. In my view, both parties should, in advance of the next round of bargaining, take the necessary time to review and reflect upon this very important issue. In this respect, I ask the parties to meet and discuss this issue on a without prejudice basis, and to seek the assistance of a facilitator in without prejudice facilitated discussions to assist them. If the parties are unable to agree upon a facilitator, I remain seized to appoint one if I determine that to be appropriate, following consultations with the parties.

Renewal of MOUs

All MOUs renewed except MOU 23 which will be replaced with reference to the teaching stream issue in this award.

Other Issues

All agreed upon items to be incorporated into the collective agreement settled by this award.

All other outstanding issues are dismissed without prejudice to the right of either party to pursue their proposals in subsequent rounds of bargaining.

Conclusion

At the request of the parties, I remain seized with respect to the implementation of this award.

DATED at Toronto this 28th day of January 2019.

The report shall indicate clearly any areas of performance which are not meeting the standards expected of a career librarian. The Chief Librarian shall meet with the LAC to review the assessments and the LAC report. Subsequently the Chief Librarian will write a letter indicating her/his agreement or disagreement with the contents of the LAC report.

If at any time during the probationary period, including prior to or subsequent to any of the ~~first three six-month reviews~~, the sixth or fourteenth month reviews, the probationary member is not demonstrating satisfactory progress in meeting the standards expected of a career librarian, the Chief Librarian shall indicate clearly any areas of performance which need improvement, and shall provide the probationary member with a reasonable period of time for such improvement. If after this period of time the probationary member is still not demonstrating satisfactory progress, the Chief Librarian may recommend dismissal pursuant to Article 16.6.E, or 16.16.A and 16.16.B.
6. No later than one month before the end of the probationary period, that is at the twenty-third month, the LAC shall have concluded a final assessment of the probationary member's performance in accordance with Article 16.6.E. A copy of this report shall be given to the probationary member, to the Chief Librarian, and to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, and shall include the recommendation of the LAC, and all LAC assessments or summaries thereof, including any written opinions dissenting from the LAC's recommendation.

- c) that the member's employment be terminated for failure to meet the standards expected of a career professional librarian.

Where (ii) (b) above is the recommendation, the LAC, through the Chair of the LAC, will indicate in writing to the probationary member any areas of improvement required in order to meet the standards expected for a career professional librarian.
