

Jukebox[®]

Jukebox Print is looking to add a MACHINE OPERATOR POSITION IN BINDERY, LAMINATION AND CUTTING to its Liberty Village, Toronto location.

Jukebox Print is a leader in the print industry, known for providing the most unique and innovative products in today's market.

Responsibilities:

- Checking the scheduler and job queue, planning and organizing according by prioritizing by due dates
- Optimizing the machine usage by managing the workflow
- Efficiently operating Bindery, Lamination, Guillotine Cutter machines
- Implementing quality assurance, checking print specifications, print file and job descriptions are met before and after advance the order
- Organizing and shipping order and sample packs
- Checking and maintaining inventory
- Informing management of any issues
- Following instructions and tasks assigned by supervisor
- Clearly communicating with departments and team members
- Maintaining and organize and clean space,
- Packaging orders neatly and in a presentable manner according to company standards
- Working safely according to safety procedures and policies

Requirements:

- Great attention to detail
- Print Production Machinery and Maintenance experience
- Fast-paced production experience

- Fast-pace KPI driven environment
- strong English communication
- Computer software experience
- Able to lift at least 45 lbs
- Time management
- Quick learner
- Available to work full time immediately

EMAIL YOUR RESUME TO KAREN CHONG (HEAD RECRUITER)
karen@jukeboxprint.com

Training Shifts: Monday to Friday (9:00am to 5:00pm) Salary: $44,000 to $50,000 per year plus Extended Health Benefits Once Trained, Shiftwork and Full 7 day Flexibility to work anytime weekends, weekdays during morning, afternoon and evening shifts required.