Toronto Metropolitan University

Immigration & Settlement Studies
Graduate & Postdoctoral Studies

Major Research Paper
Supervisor and Second Reader Report

(updated: 27-Mar-24)

Student's Name	Student's I.D.
Title of the MRP

A. Oral Review Discussion: The Examining Committee finds the Oral Review

☐ Satisfactory ☐ Unsatisfactory

B. Written Paper: It is the decision of the Examining Committee to ☐ Accept the Paper[1] ☐ Refer the Paper for Major Revision ☐ Fail the Paper

Final Grade: ☐ Pass ☐ Fail

The Second Reader may sign below following the Oral Review.

MRP Supervisor's signature below confirms that

(a) the student has made all the MRP corrections required by the faculty supervisor and the second reader, and

(b) the major research paper submitted by the student to the Yeates School of Graduate Studies is a final corrected version and

(c) if this project involved research with human subjects, project completion report has been submitted to Research Ethics Board (REB) by the student

MRP faculty supervisor returns the signed form to the Immigration & Settlement Studies Program after he/she has reviewed and is satisfied with the post-defence MRP corrections.

	Name (Printed)	Signature	Date
MRP Supervisor
MRP Second Reader

DO NOT return this form to the student when signed and completed.

The MRP Supervisor may return the completed form to the Program Administrator by email (pdf preferred) to iss@torontomu.ca (MRP Supervisor keeps the original), or by internal mail to Graduate Studies (attention: Immigration & Settlement Studies)

[1] Any minor revisions ranging from typographical errors to specified insertions or deletions that do not radically modify the development/argument of the paper shall be clearly specified in writing and the student's Supervisor shall ensure that they are made. When the Supervisor confirms that the changes have been made, the examination requirement has been met.