Tourism development from disaster capitalism

Kelly-Ann Wright, Ilan Kelman, & Rachel Dodds

Process

- Focuses on the impact of tourism development by land grabs and population displacement
- Case studies are India, Thailand and Sri Lanka following the 2001 tsunami; Honduras after Hurricane Mitch, and Barbuda following Hurricane Irma

Results

- Shows how tourism development from disaster capitalism leads to more disasters
- Assists tourism researchers in identifying how to counter post-disaster tourism development.
