How do I add/drop/swap courses?

You must log into your MyServiceHub (formerly known as RAMSS) account via the my.torontomu.ca portal.

- MyServiceHub - Support & Tutorials
- How to View Open, Closed + Waitlist Courses

How many courses do I need to take per semester?

A full course load is five (5) courses per semester.

You may take less than 5 courses in a semester. A lesser course load may affect funding that you are receiving in terms of financial assistance, awards, scholarships, or bursaries. Contact Student Financial Assistance or Service Hub with your concerns.

You may take more than 5 courses per semester if you wish.

How can I complete a minor?

For more information, visit Undergraduate Calendar – Minors. You can claim your minor(s) when you apply to graduate with your Bachelor of Fine Arts (major) degree.

You have up to eight (8) years to complete your major degree. Keep in mind that not all courses run every academic year, so strategize your graduation date accordingly. If you have concerns, contact the homedepartment that administers the minor(s) in question.
