

WHAT IS CHILD AND YOUTH ACTIVISM?

DEFINITION

Youth activism is the participation in community organizing for social change by persons between the ages of 16-30

IMPORTANCE

Activism is one of the ways that young people express their feelings, impede and interfere in social, political, economic and environmental reform in the society in order to make change.

DOING RESEARCH

Research is the pursuit of knowledge through analysis, observation, exploration, description and explanation of the unexplored idea, facts or methodologies. It enables you to evolve a proper strategy to carry out a definite work or project without digging too much into unnecessary things and facilitates to take the right decision when situations demand.

RESEARCH FROM THE YOUTHS PERSPECTIVE

- Different views and understandings of the subject being researched
- More effective ways of researching a subject
- More relevant questions
- Matters to research which are important to young people
- Sources of ongoing support for research

INTERGENERATIONAL PARTNESHIPS

Intergenerational partnerships and relationships are vital for successful activism. It allows for the older generation to learn and discover from the youth and the youth form the older generations. Making both teacher and student simultaneously. It makes the solutions and ideas inclusive and much more supported as all points of view are incorporated

Authors: Kwakhanya Kamah & Thandolwenkosi Nkosi

