Biography

Kendra Cordick is a Lesbian actor and singer born and raised in Vancouver and is currently based in Toronto.

Kendra has an immense passion for performing on film. She has been a long-time cast member of the viral Youtube Channel, Yap TV, where she was able to act in short films and series for their two million subscribers. She received a Joey Award for Best-Supporting Actress for her performance in the series Cliffhanger High (YapTV). She also trained with Ken Hall in comedic acting on film thanks to an LGBTQ+ award through Bad Dog Theatre. She has trained at Biz Studios in Vancouver and Armstrong in Toronto, as well as Voice Over training at Tulloch Academy.

While she is passionate about film, she also adores performing in theatre. In May and July of 2022, she performed in the three-time Dora Award Nominated musical, Killing Time: A Game Show Musical. She has also performed in the Ovation-nominated production of 13: The Musical (Eternal Theatre). She has trained extensively at Arts Club Theatre in both acting and musical performance.

During her time at Toronto Metropolitan University, she was able to train with incredible teachers in voice and speech, movement, voice-over, motion capture and acting techniques for stage and screen. Her favourite credits throughout her amazing time at the school include Richard III in Richard III (TMU/ Tim Welham) and Orpheus in Eurycide (TMU/ Sarah Kitz).
