Progress Indicators and Related Statistics — November 2016

Introduction

This document updates the progress indicators and related statistics to include the most recent available data. It builds upon comments and suggestions that have been received following the presentation of prior editions and supports integrated academic planning at the university, faculty and departmental levels. Table A summarizes the progress indicators and their relationship to the University's strategic priorities: high quality, societally-relevant undergraduate and graduate programs; student engagement and success; learning and teaching excellence; scholarly, research and creative activity (SRC); and reputation.

When indicator data are viewed as a time-series, trends across the years can provide Ryerson's academic units with useful contextual information on progress towards achieving planned quality improvements and other objectives. The progress indicators and related statistics are intended to inform the academic planning processes at the university, faculty and departmental levels, and to enhance public accountability. The progress indicators:

1. Provide a focused information base to support planning processes.
2. Improve the University's ability to follow and project trends related to several critical goals and objectives, and enable the evaluation of progress.
3. Enable the University to refocus current information gathering efforts to better satisfy internal information needs.
4. Provide a statistical profile of Ryerson that will inform a broad audience about both who we are and where we are in our academic evolution.

The University Planning Office has developed the progress indicators and related statistics from a wide array of data sources. It determined specific indicator definitions, collected and analysed relevant data, and produced these progress indicators and related statistics in a manner that can also be applied to future years.

The progress indicators and related statistics continue to evolve and it remains the case that some indicators or measures are not available from existing data sources and would need implementation of new data collection to obtain the requisite information annually in a consistent manner. The University Planning Office welcomes comments and suggestions in order that the indicators can be improved as necessary to meet Ryerson's current and future needs.

The statistical data on the following pages supersede those of prior editions. Each indicator includes a brief description, the intended purpose of measurement, comments and issues, calculated data and any applicable related statistics. This edition incorporates the following changes:

- The School of Performance (formerly known as the Theatre School) is now shown under its new name.
- The retention rates after one year of study for two year Master's programs have been added to the indicators and appear as Indicator 18.

Indicator 1: Applications and Entering Averages

- a. Ratio of applications (all choices) to registrants.
- b. Mean secondary school average of all incoming first-year students from secondary schools.
- c. Percentage of incoming first-year students from secondary schools with averages of 80% or higher.

Direct Indicator of:

- academically well-qualified student body
- societal need (student demand component)

Related to:

- student academic success
- program quality and success
- quality of student experience

Comments:

These indicators reflect Ryerson's image and profile, and that of its programs, among prospective students.

Related statistics:

- percentage of applicants who are from Ontario secondary schools; from other universities; from Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology (CAATs)
- gender balance of student body
- percentage of students from outside the GTA; from other provinces; international.

Issues:

In the case of Indicator 1a, data limitations do not permit calculation of qualified applicants as distinct from those who lack admission qualifications. For example, in some cases applications are withdrawn by students before they are assessed for qualifications. It is also true that some qualified applicants do not intend to attend Ryerson if accepted by another institution. As a result, total applications are shown instead of qualified applications.

Notes

1. Based on OUAC data files.
2. Applicants are able to submit more than three applications if they choose; all applications are shown in the table.
3. Data limitations do not enable applications to be disaggregated into qualified and unqualified categories (based on whether or not the applicant was found to have met minimum admission requirements for the program(s) to which an application was submitted).
4. The number of registrants used in the calculation is as of 1 November of each year.
5. Cells with "n/a" indicate faculties or programs that have yet to begin.

Notes

1. Based on (a) Ryerson's student information system and (b) OUAC data files.
2. Includes only newly-admitted students in first-year level on 1 November.
3. Students applying directly from secondary school complete the OUAC 101 Application Form and are also referred to as 101s.
4. Entering averages for individual students are unrounded and expressed to one decimal place. Students for whom an entering average was unavailable are excluded from the calculation.
5. Cells with "n/a" indicate faculties or programs that have yet to begin.

Indicator 1c	Percentage of newly-admitted students registered in first-year level on 1 November who were admitted directly from an Ontario secondary school with an entering average of 80% or higher

Notes

1. Based on (a) Ryerson's student information system and (b) OUAC data files.
2. Includes only newly-admitted students in first-year level on 1 November.
3. Students applying directly from secondary school complete the OUAC 101 Application Form and are also referred to as 101s.
4. Entering averages for individual students are unrounded and expressed to one decimal place. Students for whom an entering average was unavailable are excluded from the calculation. An entering average of 80.0 or higher is required for inclusion in this table.
5. Cells with "n/a" indicate faculties or programs that have yet to begin.

Notes

1. Based on Ryerson's student information system.
2. Excludes Continuing Education students.
3. Both the Faculties of Communication & Design and Engineering & Architectural Science have no part-time programs.
4. Starting in 2009/10 Business Mgt students with three or more courses were automatically enrolled in the full-time version of a program. This accounts for the decrease in FFTEs over the previous year.
5. Cells with "n/a" indicate the program did not exist.

Notes

1. Based on Ryerson's student information system.
2. The Faculties of Communication & Design and Engineering & Architectural Science both have no part-time programs.
3. The headcounts of new registrants in part-time programs include students who have enrolled in previous academic terms as Continuing Education students, but excludes students transferring to a part-time program from a full-time program.
4. Zero values are shown as blanks. Cells with "n/a" indicate that program did not exist.

Notes

- Based on Chang School course registrations data.
- Prior to the 2005/06 academic year degree program students registered in CNED courses in the spring terms were reported as CNED students. As of 2005/06, degree program students were identified separately in the spring term. Consequently, there was a marked increase in CNED registrations by program students for the 2005/06 year and beyond.

Indicator 3: Graduate Employment Rates Graduate employment placement rates in the chosen field or a related field.
Direct Indicator of:	Related to:
• societal need (employment)	• currency and relevance of curriculum
Comments: One of several indirect measures of program success, and one which we are currently required to report to the Ministry. Because of our applied mandate, to measure placement rates without reference to the student's chosen career field is inadequate. This variable must also be interpreted in light of economic trends.
Issues: This indicator is based on survey data and therefore must be interpreted carefully in light of the associated estimated error of the survey results at each level of disaggregation. The underlying survey is administered to graduates from degree programs only.

Notes

1. Based on disaggregation of MTCU Key Performance graduate survey data.
2. Column headed "+/-" Error estimates the magnitude of error (including finite population correction f.p.c.) associated with each survey result shown. The actual value for the population is estimated to fall within this interval nineteen times out of twenty but is not shown for instances where the employment rate in the sample is 100%. For example, between 78.6% and 84.4% of graduates from Ryerson's Class of 2002 found work in a field either closely or somewhat related to their field of studies two years after graduation.
3. Graduates who were not part of the labour force (e.g., enrolled in graduate school) are excluded from the calculation.
4. Excludes diploma programs because the underlying questionnaire was administered to degree graduates only.

Notes

1. Based on disaggregation of MTCU Key Performance Indicator graduate survey data.
2. Column headed "+/-" Error estimates the magnitude of error (including finite population correction f.p.c.) associated with each survey result shown. The actual value for the population is estimated to fall within this interval nineteen times out of twenty but is not shown for instances where the employment rate in the sample is 100%. For example, between 84.3% and 89.3% of graduates from Ryerson's Class of 2006 found work in a field either closely or somewhat related to their field of studies two years after graduation.
3. Graduates who were not part of the labour force (e.g., enrolled in graduate school) are excluded from the calculation.
4. Excludes diploma programs because the underlying questionnaire was administered to degree graduates only.

2. Programs are excluded from the table when no students respond to the survey.
3. Column headed "+/-" Error estimates the magnitude of error (including finite population correction f.p.c.) associated with each survey result shown. The actual value for the population is estimated to fall within this interval nineteen times out of twenty but is not shown for instances where the employment rate in the sample is 100%. For example, between 85.8% and 89.8% of graduates from Ryerson's Class of 2009 found work in a field either closely or somewhat related to their field of studies two years after graduation.
4. Graduates who were not part of the labour force (e.g., enrolled in graduate school) are excluded from the calculation.
5. Excludes diploma programs because the underlying questionnaire was administered to degree graduates only.
6. "n/a" indicates that no graduates responded to the survey.

Notes

1. Based on disaggregation of MTCU Key Performance Indicator graduate survey data.
2. Programs are excluded from the table when no students respond to the survey.
3. Column headed "+/-" Error estimates the magnitude of error (including finite population correction f.p.c.) associated with each survey result shown. The actual value for the population is estimated to fall within this interval nineteen times out of twenty but is not shown for instances where the employment rate in the sample is 100%. For example, between 80.0% and 83.6% of graduates from Ryerson's Class of 2012 found work in a field either closely or somewhat related to their field of studies two years after graduation.
4. Graduates who were not part of the labour force (e.g., enrolled in graduate school) are excluded from the calculation.
5. Excludes diploma programs because the underlying questionnaire was administered to degree graduates only.
6. "n/a" indicates that no graduates responded to the survey.

Indicator 4: Experiential Learning

- a. Percentage of programs with formal experiential component, including co-op, internship, work/field/clinical placement.*
- b. Percentage of students participating in such activities in a given year.*

<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• currency and relevance of curriculum</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• quality of student experience</li><li>• societal need (industry/professional component)</li></ul>
Comments: This indicator bears upon Ryerson's commitment to provide a high level of applied, experiential learning.
Related Statistic: Percentage of programs that provide opportunity for international experience, and number of students participating in international activities in a given year.
Issues: Calculation of Indicator 4b has been deferred. Current data sources do not provide adequate information on the extent of the experiential component on a student-by-student basis. Indicator 4a provides similar information by classifying programs of study but there is variation in the definition of the experiential component across programs. New data collection would be required to obtain data on the numbers of students participating in international activities (or having an opportunity to participate).

Indicator 5: Retention and Graduation Rates

- a. Percentage of students admitted into first year who complete first year with a CLEAR academic standing.
- b. Graduation rates (MTCU methodology).
- d. Percentage of students retained in any year level of same program after one year of study.
- e. Percentage of students retained in any year level of same program after two years of study.
- f. Percentage of students retained in any year level of same program after three years of study.
- g. Percentage of students retained in any year level irrespective of program of study after one year of study.
- h. Percentage of students retained in any year level irrespective of program of study after two years of study.
- i. Percentage of students retained in any year level irrespective of program of study after three years of study.
- j. Retention and graduation rates for students in part-time programs.
- k. Percentage of baccalaureate-seeking new students admitted directly from secondary school retained in any year level of any program after one year of study (CSRDE definition).
- l. Percentage of baccalaureate-seeking new students admitted directly from secondary school retained in any year level of any program after two years of study (CSRDE definition).
- m. Percentage of baccalaureate-seeking new students admitted directly from secondary school retained in any year level of any program after three years of study (CSRDE definition).
- n. Percentage of baccalaureate-seeking new students admitted directly from secondary school who graduated within six years (CSRDE definition).

Direct Indicator of:

- student academic success

Related to:

- student support systems and services
- curriculum, teaching, and course delivery
- academically well-qualified students

Comments:

These indicators help to gauge the level of student academic success and rates of progression through the program. It can be affected by academic promotion policy and other factors. The method of calculation for Indicators 5k to 5n follows that developed by the Consortium for Student Retention Data Exchange (CSRDE) and is widely used in North America.

Notes

- Based on Ryerson's student information system data.
- The percentages shown above are calculated by dividing the number of newly admitted year 1 students who had a CLEAR standing at the end of the Winter term by the total number of newly admitted year 1 students. For example, in Fall 2015 there were 7,539 students who were new to Ryerson and in year 1. Of these, 6,369 (or 84.5%) had a CLEAR standing at the end of the 2015/16 academic year. (This method is different than that used in editions of the Progress Indicators previous to 2010. Students who did not have an academic standing at the end of the year were previously excluded from the calculation. An academic standing is not calculated for students with fewer than three completed graded courses.)
- Zero values are shown as blanks. Blank cells are the result of cohorts with a very small number of students. Cells with "n/a" indicate faculties/programs that were either discontinued or had yet to begin.

Notes

1. Newly-admitted students in first-year level of degree programs who were registered with a full-time course load on 1 November (ie., MCUFFTE>=0.4 in the Fall term). Includes students in part-time programs if they had a full-time course load. Excludes students who eventually graduated with a diploma only (in degree programs that offered a diploma-exit option).
2. Students who graduated with any Ryerson degree during the calendar years shown.
3. Requirement that MCUFFTE>=0.4 in fall term results in exclusion of nearly all program students from cohort.
4. Not shown for part-time programs due to extremely low number of students in cohort.
5. "..." denotes entries that are not shown at the program level but which are used at the faculty level and higher.
6. The MTCU methodology excludes advanced standing students admitted within the identified timeframe.

Notes

1. Newly-admitted students in first-year level of degree programs who were registered with a full-time course load on 1 November. Includes students in part-time programs if they had a full-time course load.
2. Students who graduated with any Ryerson degree during the calendar years shown.
3. "n/a" denotes that a program did not exist in a given year or that no students in a particular program met the conditions described in note 1.
4. "..." denotes entries that are not shown at the program level but which are used at the faculty level and higher.
5. The MTCU methodology excludes advanced standing students admitted within the identified timeframe.

Notes

1. Data are shown for 12 cohorts of students dating from Fall 2003 to Fall 2014.
2. A student is included in the cohort if registered with a full-time load in the academic term (shown on line marked "Cohort:"). Students who are not newly admitted or not in first-year are excluded.
3. The table shows the percentage of students who registered (irrespective of course load) in any program in the Fall academic term one year later (identified on the line marked "Retained in:"). For example, 89.3% of newly-admitted students registered with a full-time load in first-year at Ryerson in Fall 2003 were registered in any program one year later in Fall 2004.
4. For co-op programs with a fall work term, the winter term has been substituted when making the retention calculation.
5. "n/a" denotes that a program did not exist for a given year.

Notes

1. Data are shown for 12 cohorts of students dating from Fall 2002 to Fall 2013.
2. A student is included in the cohort if registered with a full-time load in the academic term (shown on line marked "Cohort:"). Students who are not newly admitted or not in first-year are excluded.
3. The table shows the percentage of students who registered (irrespective of course load) in any program in the Fall academic term two years later (identified on the line marked "Retained in:"). For example, 86.7% of newly-admitted students registered with a full-time load in first-year at Ryerson in Fall 2002 were registered in any program two years later in Fall 2004.
4. For co-op programs with a fall work term, the winter term has been substituted when making the retention calculation.
5. "n/a" denotes that a program did not exist for a given year.
6. Beginning with the 2003/04 year the retention rates for the options within the Business Mgt program were tracked separately.

Indicator 5i		Percentage of students retained in any program after three years of study

Notes

1. Data are shown for 12 cohorts of students dating from Fall 2001 to Fall 2012.
2. A student is included in the cohort if registered with a full-time load in the academic term (shown on line marked "Cohort:"). Students who are not newly admitted or not in first-year are excluded.
3. The table shows the percentage of students who registered (irrespective of course load) in any program in the Fall academic term three years later (identified on the line marked "Retained in:"). For example, 77.5% of newly-admitted students registered with a full-time load in first-year at Ryerson in Fall 2001 were registered in any program three years later in Fall 2004.
4. For co-op programs with a fall work term, the winter term has been substituted when making the retention calculation.
5. "n/a" denotes that a program did not exist for a given year.
6. Beginning with the 2003/04 year the retention rates for the options within the Business Mgt program were tracked separately.

1. Data are shown for ten cohorts of students from 2005/06 to 2014/15
2. The headcounts of new registrants in part-time programs include students who have enrolled in previous academic terms as Continuing Education students, but exclude students transferring to a part-time program from a full-time program.
3. The table shows the percentage of students who registered (irrespective of course load) in any term one academic year later, identified on the line "Retained in:".
4. For example, 80.8% of newly-admitted students registered in a part-time program at Ryerson in the academic year 2005/06 were registered in the 2006/07 academic year.
5. Students who graduated after one year of study have been removed from the cohort so as to accurately reflect the retention rates.
6. Cells with "n/a" indicate that either a program did not exist for a given year or that no new students were admitted that year.

Notes

1. Data are shown for ten cohorts of students from 2003/04 to 2012/13
2. The headcounts of new registrants in part-time programs include students who have enrolled in previous academic terms as Continuing Education students, but exclude students transferring to a part-time program from a full-time program.
3. The table shows the percentage of students who registered (irrespective of course load) in any term three academic years later, identified on the line "Retained in:".
4. For example, 54.2% of newly-admitted students registered in a part-time program at Ryerson in the academic year 2003/04 were registered in the 2006/07 academic year.
5. Students who graduated after three years of study have been removed from the cohort so as to accurately reflect the retention rates.
6. Cells with "n/a" indicate that either a program did not exist for a given year or that no new students were admitted that year.

Notes

1. A student is included in the cohort if newly admitted from a secondary school into first year and registered with a full-time load in the academic term marked "Cohort". Students who are not newly admitted or not in first year are excluded.
2. The table shows the percentage of students who registered (irrespective of course load) in the Fall academic term identified on the line marked "Retained in". For example, 80.7% of students newly admitted from a secondary school into first year on a full-time load at Ryerson in Fall 2012 were registered three years later in Fall 2015.

Indicator 9: Faculty Background a. Percentage of total faculty and percentage of new hires with PhD or other terminal degree. b. Percentage of new hires with directly related experience in the professional field.
Direct Indicator of:	Related to:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• objective to attract and retain highly qualified faculty</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• scholarly, research and creative (SRC) capacity and productivity</li> <li>• program quality and success</li> <li>• quality of the student experience</li> </ul>
Comments: Indicates our level of progress in hiring faculty both with typical university-level academic qualifications and with the professionally-related experience so important to Ryerson's mission.
Issues: Indicator 9a shows the highest educational background by type of credential for total faculty and new hires as two tables on separate pages. Calculation of Indicator 9b has been deferred because new data collection would be required to measure directly-related experience in the professional field on a consistent basis.

Indicator 10: Scholarly, Research and Creative Activities (SRC) Funding a. Total number and value of externally funded SRC projects. b. Percentage of faculty with funded SRC activity.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• SRC capacity and productivity</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• objective to attract and retain qualified faculty</li> </ul>
Comments: Provides an indication of both competitiveness in SRC grant competitions and the breadth of SRC activity within Ryerson.
Issues: For externally adjudicated and externally funded grants, indicators showing the number of grants per Mode II faculty member, the dollar value of grants per Mode II faculty member, the number of grants per Mode I faculty member and the dollar value of grants per Mode I faculty member have been constructed. It should be noted that indicators for Mode I faculty members have been included because Mode I faculty do undertake SRC activity and their exclusion would result in an incomplete profile. However, SRC is not a requirement for Mode I faculty members. Calculation of Indicator 10b has been deferred.

Notes

1. Based on background and supplementary data from the Office of the Vice-President Research & Innovation.
2. Cells with "n/a" indicate that there were no Mode I faculty in that teaching department.
3. Grants included are those for which adjudication and funding are external to Ryerson.
4. Includes grants from the federal granting agencies: Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council (SSHRC), Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR), Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada (NSERC), Communications Research Centre Canada (CRC), Canada Foundation for Innovation (CFI), and grants awarded via federal granting agencies to the Networks of Centres of Excellence of Canada (NCE).
5. Includes grants from the provincial granting agencies: Ontario Centres of Excellence (OCE).
6. Includes both federal and provincial government contracts and grants.
7. Includes corporation and business grants and other grants if both adjudication and funding are external to Ryerson.

Notes

1. Based on background and supplementary data from the Office of the Vice-President Research & Innovation.
2. Cells with "n/a" indicate that there were no Mode I faculty in that teaching department.
3. Grants included are those for which adjudication and funding are external to Ryerson.
4. Includes grants from the federal granting agencies: Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC), Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR), Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada (NSERC), Communications Research (CRC), Canada Foundation for Innovation (CFI), and grants awarded via federal granting agencies to the Networks of Excellence (NCE).
5. Includes grants from the provincial granting agencies: Ontario Centres of Excellence (OCE).
6. Includes both federal and provincial government contracts and grants.
7. Includes corporate and business grants and other grants if both adjudication and funding are external to Ryerson.

Notes

1. Based on background and supplementary data from the Office of the Vice-President Research & Innovation.
2. Cells with "n/a" indicate that there were no Mode I faculty in that teaching department.
3. Grants included are those for which adjudication and funding are external to Ryerson.
4. Includes grants from the federal granting agencies: Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC), Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR), Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada (NSERC), Communications Research Centre Canada (CRC), Canada Foundation for Innovation (CFI), and grants awarded via federal granting agencies to the Networks of Centres of Excellence (NCE).
5. Includes grants from the provincial granting agencies: Ontario Centres of Excellence (OCE).
6. Includes both federal and provincial government contracts and grants.
7. Includes corporate and business grants and other grants if both adjudication and funding are external to Ryerson.

Notes

1. Based on background and supplementary data from the Office of the Vice-President Research & Innovation.
2. Cells with "n/a" indicate that there were no Mode I faculty in that teaching department.
3. Grants included are those for which adjudication and funding are external to Ryerson.
4. Includes grants from the federal granting agencies: Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC), Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR), Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada (NSERC), Communications Research Centre Canada (CRC), Canada Foundation for Innovation (CFI), and grants awarded via federal granting agencies to the Networks of Centres of Excellence (NCE).
5. Includes grants from the provincial granting agency: Ontario Centres of Excellence (OCE).
6. Includes both federal and provincial government contracts and grants.
7. Includes corporate and business grants and other grants if both adjudication and funding are external to Ryerson.

Notes

1. Student full-time equivalent data from Ryerson's student information system. Faculty data from HR and includes active RFA and CUPE instructors. Deans and Professors of Distinction have been excluded from the faculty counts. Associate Deans have been included.
2. Both undergraduate and graduate degree enrolments included in calculations. All Chang School students and all teaching by the Chang School to undergraduate degree students has been excluded.
3. Undergraduate FFTE are based on teaching in Fall and Winter terms. Graduate FTE have been converted to undergraduate equivalents (i.e., three terms divided by two).
4. The School of Health Services Management became part of the Ted Rogers School of Management in 2011/12

Indicator 14: Graduating Undergraduate Student Satisfaction

Graduating student survey: Percentage of undergraduate students indicating “satisfied” or “very satisfied” with:

- a. teaching*
- b. curriculum*
- c. career preparation*
- d. Ryerson as a whole*

Direct Indicator of:

- graduating student satisfaction in each of the specified areas

Related to:

- quality of the student experience
- program quality and success
- student support systems and services

Comments:

Extracted from the existing annual survey of graduating students.

Issues:

The survey of graduating undergraduate students is conducted as part of Ryerson’s participation in the Canadian Undergraduate Survey Consortium (CUSC). The extent of overlap between Indicators 14 and 15 is under review.

Notes

1. Based on Ryerson data from Canadian Undergraduate Survey Consortium, Survey of Graduating Students 2000.
2. Percentages for each question do not sum to 100 percent because "not stated" responses are not shown.
3. Column headed "Respondents" shows the number of students who completed the questionnaire.
4. The Landscape Architecture diploma program has been phased-out.
5. Reported for students who applied to graduate from full-time programs.
6. Column headed "+/- Error" estimates the magnitude of error (including finite population correction f.p.c.) associated with each survey result shown in the "Yes" column. The actual value for the population is estimated to fall within this interval 19 times out of 20 but is not shown for instances where the rate in the sample is 100%. For example, between 84.9 and 87.3 of students who applied to graduate would recommend Ryerson to others.

Notes

1. Based on Ryerson data from Canadian Undergraduate Survey Consortium, Survey of Graduating Students 2006.
2. Percentages for each question do not sum to 100 percent because "not stated" responses are not shown.
3. Column headed "Respondents" shows the number of students who completed the questionnaire.
4. Reported for full-time programs.
5. Column headed "+/- Error" estimates the magnitude of error associated with each survey result shown in the "Yes" column.
The actual value for the population is estimated to fall within this interval 19 times out of 20 but is not shown for instances where the rate in the sample is 100%. For example, between 83.6% and 86.4% of students who applied to graduate would recommend Ryerson to others.

Indicator 17: Completion Rates (Graduate Studies)

- a. Completion rates after one, two, three and four years of study for full-time Master's programs.*
- b. Completion rates after four, five, six and seven years of study for part-time Master's programs.*
- c. Average time to completion for both full- and part-time programs.*
- d. Completion rates for Doctoral Programs.*
- e. Average time to completion for Doctoral Programs.*

Direct Indicator of:

- student academic success

Related to:

- student support systems and services
- curriculum, teaching, and course delivery
- academically well-qualified students

Comments:

This indicator helps to gauge the rates of progression through the program and can be affected by academic promotion policy and other factors.

Indicator 18: Graduate Retention

- a. Percentage of students retained in same program after one year of study for two year full-time Master's programs.
- b. Percentage of students retained in any program after one year of study for 2 year full-time Master's programs.
- c. Percentage of students retained in same program after one year of study for part-time Master's programs.
- d. Percentage of students retained in any program after one year of study for part-time Master's programs.

Direct Indicator of:

- student academic success

Related to:

- student support systems and services
- curriculum, teaching, and course delivery
- academically well-qualified students

Comments:

These indicators help to gauge the level of student academic success and rates of progression through the program. It can be affected by academic promotion policy and other factors.

Notes

1. Based on Ryerson student information system data.

2. A student is included in the cohort the first fall term they enrol as a full-time Master's student at Ryerson. Students who switch programs are not included in two cohorts. A student who enters one Master's program, graduates from that program and then registered in a second program has been included in a second cohort. A student who began their Master's degree and switched to a Doctoral degree without graduating has not been included in the cohort.

3. The table shows the percentage of students who registered in the same Master's program one year later. (identified on the line marked "Retained in:"). For example, 93.8% of newly-admitted students registered at Ryerson in Fall 2005 were registered in the same program one year later in 2006/07.
