REPORT OF ACADEMIC STANDARDS COMMITTEE Report #F2020-3; December 2020

In this report the Academic Standards Committee (ASC) brings to Senate its evaluation and recommendation on the following items:

• FACULTY OF ARTS – Language and Intercultural Relations – Modification to Concentrations

A. FACULTY OF ARTS - LANGUAGE AND INTERCULTURAL RELATIONS - MODIFICATION TO CONCENTRATIONS

The Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures proposes removal of the current Concentration requirement to complete the BA in Language and Intercultural Relations (LIR), and instead make its Concentrations optional. Any student graduating at the end of Winter 2021 or later will not be required to complete a concentration.

Rationale:

1. Alignment with Policy #2 - The BA in Language and Intercultural Relations (LIR) was launched in 2016/2017 with a program structure that required the completion of a Concentration to graduate. The 2019 revised Policy # 2 Undergraduate Curriculum Structure states that the "completion of a Concentration cannot be made mandatory and the program's curriculum must allow for a student to complete the program requirements without a Concentration if they so choose." The Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures is therefore asking to remove the mandatory completion of a Concentration in LIR and make the completion of a Concentration optional.

2. Flexibility for students - To make the concentrations optional would allow students to graduate with or without a Concentration and be able to change their mind along the way. This will be an advantage for students who take a few Table V courses and then decide to abandon a Concentration, since they would not have to take extra courses to complete their Table V requirements. They will simply graduate from the program without a concentration.

3. Provide access to minors - Due to the mandatory nature of the current concentrations in LIR, students have relatively limited access to minors. The removal of mandatory concentrations will solve a key issue with LIR students trying to complete a minor, particularly where courses count toward both the concentration and minor. Policy 2 and the Minors policy do not allow students to use the same course(s) for both a minor and a concentration. For example, students cannot currently graduate with a concentration in Language and Cognition and a Minor in Psychology. Removing the concentration requirement will give students flexibility in choosing to complete either the minor or the concentration, where there is overlap, rather than being forced to maintain only the concentration.

The Minors Policy was revised and published in the 2018 -2019 UGRD Calendar to state that as per #7 in the minors policy: "Any course used to satisfy a requirement of a minor cannot also be used to satisfy a requirement of a concentration." The Minors Policy published in the 2017-2018 UGRD Calendar made no mention of the fact that courses cannot be 'double counted' towards both a concentration and a minor. This change was introduced in the 2018/19 academic calendar, so our concern is for students who joined the program in both 2016/17 and 2017/18 academic years, as we do still have some students in their 4th and 5th year of the program who were planning to graduate with a minor and a concentration.
