For Ted Rogers Students

Your Guide to the Retail Co-op Program

For the 2024-2025 Academic Year

Published June 2025

The Ted Rogers School of Management (TRSM) offers one of the largest business Co-op programs in all of Canada, with over 2,500 students participating across 12 program streams. With high employment rates, strong relationships with hiring managers, and an industry-leading Co-op Prep Program, the Ted Rogers Co-op program sets students up for success.

The Retail Management (RTM) Co-op program is the smallest program at the Ted Rogers School, but has been steadily growing since its inception in 2017.

As a RTM Co-op student, you have the opportunity to complete up to four Work Terms, representing 16 months of work experience. The employment market is strong for students in the RTM major, particularly in Fall and Winter semesters. The average employment rate for RTM students in 2024-2025 was 91.67%.

JESSICA KIM

Even though my role as an intern was not as significant as other higher positions within the company, being proactive and showing ownership with my work helped me stand out and be recognized by my colleagues.

Within my department, I helped significantly with the overall organization of our department whether it was with events planning or document organization. I also took on many solo projects within planning and revising our planograms. As mentioned above, I was also heavily involved with planning and hosting major events at our company as well.

Top Skills Employers Are Seeking

Based on 3,683 job descriptions tagged to students in the Retail Management program (all posted in our jobs portal), for the period 2024-2025, the following skills are most often listed in the job requirements section.

Average Hourly Wage on Work Term

As one would expect, your pay rate will increase from Work Term to Work Term. Employers value experience and this is reflected in a 15% increase in pay from 1st to 4th Work Term.

Co-op Students Earn $55,933

The Ted Rogers Co-op program is providing you an opportunity to earn money while you complete your studies. Earning money while on Work Term allows you to graduate debt-free.

Since 2017, RTM students have earned over $2.05M as a whole - on average, each student is earning $55K across all four Work Terms.

Bootcamps Provide You a Competitive Advantage

BCH offers students at the Ted Rogers School of Management with exclusive access to over 26 technical Bootcamps, all of which are highly endorsed by our employer partners.

Students who take advantage of these programs (by earning badges and certifications) make themselves far more competitive in the workplace.

In 2024-2025 alone, we processed 55 Bootcamp registrations for Co-op students in the RET stream.

The most popular Bootcamps for RET students were Excel (required), Python, Tableau and Power BI.

We Offer A Leading-Edge Co-op Prep Program

We have invested heavily in the development of an industry-endorsed Co-op Prep Program designed to prepare you to be successful on your 1st Work Term and beyond.

You will participate in programming designed to support your professional growth and development through these elements:
