Join the leading visual media program for a digital world.

Today's photography industry is a constantly expanding field that includes web, video, installation, and emerging imaging technologies such as virtual reality and 3D modelling. This internationally renowned program embraces a full range of lens-based media with a focus on creating images that compel, provoke, and inspire viewers.

CREATE YOUR OWN PATHWAY

Develop skills in still, moving and digital imagery. Create your own pathway or mix and match between contemporary art, documentary, editorial, commercial, photojournalism, and creative technologies. Learn all aspects of photography and media art including camera and lighting, installation experience, 3D environments, graphic design, curation, history and theory.

EXPLORE WITH TECHNOLOGY

Expand your creative and analytical skills by exploring interactive, cross-platform, and cross-disciplinary art practices. The Integrated Digital option offers studio, technical, and theory courses with a particular emphasis on digital media and emerging creative technologies allowing you to explore animation, creative coding, projection mapping, and digital media installation, among others.

MAXIMUM EXPOSURE

Feature your work in the annual Maximum Exposure exhibit as part of the Scotiabank CONTACT Photography Festival, where industry professionals meet with the next generation of media makers. You can also showcase your work in the heart of downtown Toronto with the off-site Artspace and two gallery spaces on campus. Access incredible networking and mentorship opportunities, visiting artists programs, workshops, and internships.

DIVERSE CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Our alumni have a proven track record of finding professional and creative success as art, editorial, fashion, commercial, and documentary photographers, as well as filmmakers, curators, teachers, and entrepreneurs. They work in galleries, studios, universities, magazines, newspapers, publishing, creative agencies, and businesses, making invaluable contributions to Canada's image-based industries.

HANDS-ON LEARNING

Produce your work at the highest professional level with access to state-of-the-art cameras, lenses, lighting, printers, and facilities, including studios, dark rooms, woodshops, maker spaces, edit suites, and digital fabrication labs. You will also have access to the Image Centre, Canada's leading research and exhibition centre and home to world-renowned collections.
