MASTER OF FINE ARTS IN SCRIPTWRITING & STORY DESIGN

An interdisciplinary writing program for mainstream and alternative storytelling platforms

This uniquely interdisciplinary program nurtures emerging storytelling voices in the art of script-based creative writing for stage, screen and cutting-edge media platforms. Students in the program are exposed to new forms of storytelling and encouraged to explore the possibilities of emerging technology. They learn to develop powerful stories, designed for maximum impact.

HANDS-ON LEARNING

Take foundational writing courses and then advance your skills through the study and practice of 21st century digital linear and non-linear storytelling designs. Each MFA student's final thesis project will be the completion of a full script for a feature film, a stage play, a television script, or other script-based media composition.

PAID OPPORTUNITIES + SCHOLARSHIPS

Apply for work as a Research Assistant or Graduate Teaching Assistant. Program funding is awarded to top candidates.

RESEARCH AND SUPPORT

Access complimentary resources and opportunities within our creative ecosystem. This includes professional and scholarly experts, state-of-the-art labs and studios, future-driven projects, industry partnerships, international networks, incubator-style zones and creative technology to reimagine creativity and develop your own authentic voice.

INTERDISCIPLINARY PROGRAM

Take full advantage of the MFA program's interdisciplinary nature by exploring the range of knowledge and resources offered by the foundational schools of Image Arts, Performance and RTA School of Media.
